

Who is the Holy Spirit to me?

As the power of a car comes from an engine, the engine of my life is the Holy Spirit. It is because the Holy Spirit empowers every part of my life, gives me a new day, and revivifies my life.

The Holy Spirit is the one who arouses in me the will to do good in my daily life, gives me the courage to start a new relationship with the right direction in difficulties, and engraves on my memory that I'm a loved sinner.

I spend most of my day with 17-year-old high school girls as a teacher. Sometimes, I deal with administrative paperwork or do admission counseling in school, but most of the time I do 'music' lessons with students.

When I lead a music lesson, I often think that our lives are very similar to the process of doing 'music'. I would like to share my experience while imagining the process of singing in the chorus.

"The process of gathering together with others to adjust voices, learn tones, practice, master, wait for other people, touch up a motif and uniting"

Music is the process of completing beauty. The greatest beauty is God.

The Holy Spirit gives us the beauty, that is the wisdom to turn to God!

The gentleness that displays who we are and exists as we are!

The love to listen to each other's voices!

The faithfulness for deeper beauty!

And the fruit of patience to endure under any circumstances.

Unless we endure the discomforts and disorders in the process, we will not be able to have harmony.

Also, this is a spiritual process of experiencing the 'unity and harmony' that the Holy Spirit gives to us beyond simply 'combining'.

Sr. Anna Jeong CJ